Denis McDonough

Denis is often described as a "classic comic", Denis's comedy is quick witted, and original with a hint of sarcasm. While a native New Yorker, Denis moved to North Carolina and by accident found himself at his first open mic. After he got his first laugh, Denis was hooked! Denis started hitting the local comedy clubs to try his hand at the standup comedy dream. Soon after, Denis started getting his chops and moved back to New York City. He hit all the NYC clubs and befriended many funny comedians/club owners.

These Days you can find Denis touring the countries comedy clubs making the masses laugh. Denis recently performed in the "New York Underground Comedy Festival" and has opened for Lori Kilmartin, Sue Costello, Feddy Soto, and Christian Finnegan.
